2. If a pastor indicates to his church that he desires to serve another term, then later decides to the contrary, and requests to be moved, this request must be in writing and a copy presented to the Stationing Committee for study before the request shall be granted. A copy of the pastor's request will be filed with the church he or she is leaving.

3. Ministers shall be informed of their appointment during consultation with the Stationing Committee. If an adjustment has to be made, the committee shall grant the minister another consultation.

4. If a church votes for a pastor and the church delegate(s) makes a request to the Stationing Committee contrary to the vote of the church, such requests must be in writing and a copy filed with the committee. A copy of this request will be filed with the local church and pastor.

5. No person, other than duly elected delegates, shall consult with the Stationing Committee concerning pastoral assignments, unless the pastor and delegates involved are invited to attend the meeting.

1. Application for admission into the conference shall be made to the conference superintendent.

6. All candidates for license and ordination shall have completed courses offered at Holmes College of the Bible, Southwestern Bible College, Emmanuel College, The School of Christian Ministries at Emmanuel College, or a course of study approved by the General Conference. Deeds

1. No property shall be accepted in the conference with a revertible clause in the deed. All deeds to church property shall be drawn in harmony with the specific guidelines as set forth in the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL.

Local Church Official Boards

1. Eligibility for election and tenure of service on the church board will be determined by the local church in harmony with the guidelines set forth in the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL.

2. The local church shall refrain from electing to the official board more than one member of an immediate family in its congregation, except in cases where it is unavoidable.

3. Each member of the local church who serves in any official capacity shall be required to furnish evidence that he or she pays tithes into the church where he or she may serve.

Resolutions

1. All resolutions offered from the floor of the conference shall bear signatures equal to the number of the Resolutions Committee.

Finances--Minister and Church

1. In pastoral changes, the local church shall be responsible for the moving of the incoming pastor.

2. Each church shall support the conference budget by sending to the conference office monthly,the percentage of its income from regular tithes and offerings determined by the quadrennial conference. In case of failure to comply with this regulation, the conference superintendent may ask for an explanation for delay in payment.

3. Each local church and the conference shall support the general program of the denomination. Each local church shall send a tithe (10%) of its income from regular tithes and offerings to the conference office to be appropriately forwarded to the general church treasury. Churches complying with these regulations may be permitted to earmark special offerings. All funds raised for World Missions, Evangelism, Falcon Children's Home, Education, and other designated agencies are to be sent to the conference treasury monthly and forwarded accordingly.

4. All members of the conference shall pay one hundred percent (100%) of their tithes into the conference. Members who fail to comply with this regulation will be subjected to the disciplines provided by the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL. The conference superintendent may notify such members as to their delinquency by letter quarterly. All tithes are to be paid on or before the tenth of each month.

5. In addition to the tithe, all active (those not superannuated) members shall pay one and one-half percent (1.5%) of their net income, or two hundred dollars ($200.00) whichever is greater, yearly for conference superannuation. Failure to do this forfeits one from drawing superannuation benefits for the year(s) not paid. Ministerial students are to pay one hundred dollars ($100.00) per year while in school.

6. The conference year shall end December 31; therefore, all tithes of ministers and churches must be paid by January 10th. Monthly written reports from ministers and churches must be sent to the conference office by the tenth of the month.

7. Due to the high cost of living and the need to maintain adequate transportation for the minister, and in view of the consensus that an adequately supported minister can and will do a better job; it becomes mandatory that:

a. In keeping with the general conference policy concerning housing and utilities, the conference board will consider housing and utilities (electricity, fuel, water, telephone) for officials. Each local church shall consider the same for its pastor. These allowances shall be separate and apart from the salaries of ministers and officials.

b. Full-time evangelists shall have the privilege of deducting housing and utilities from their evangelistic compensation. (Full-time means the minister does not customarily resort to non-ministerial employment.)

c. The church shall review the pastor's salary semi-annually and grant increases in salary in keeping with diligence, merit, and service of a pastor. Special consideration should be given where growth has resulted from the services and efforts of the pastor.

d. Churches shall pay the pastor's salary during the annual conference session. In order to eliminate confusion regarding the salaries and benefits for the pastors during the week of conference and to insure that all pastors are paid in the event of pastoral change, the church which the pastor is leaving will pay his salary and benefits through the week of the annual conference.

e. Churches are now required by the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL to pay the pastor's social security tax.

f. The superintendent shall confer with the church boards in the matter of pastoral support where the need is apparent.

g. Churches are encouraged to pay the insurance premiums for the pastor. The conference treasurer shall pay the premiums for the superintendent. The Christian Education Department shall pay the premiums for the Christian education director and the Evangelism Department shall pay the premiums for the evangelism director. These stated departments shall also pay the social security tax for said personnel.

h. In keeping with the general conference minutes, the Conference Board shall review and adjust the salary of the superintendent and other personnel employed by the conference.

11. All salaries and benefits including mileage received by conference personnel shall be included in the conference treasurer's report.

3. No pastor or member of a local church shall engage in any effort to solicit absentee votes or to campaign for or against the incumbent pastor. Superannuated ministers and local evangelists shall refrain from any activity which will have the effect or retarding the growth and progress of the local church which may result in interference with the program of the present pastor.

CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

God is so good! I know that little phrase may sound like an over-simplification of the praises due our Lord, not just because of the multitude of His mercies and goodnesses He constantly lavishes on us; but because He is gloriously worthy of all praise just because He is God! I praise the Lord for a precious wife and family; for good friends and faithful co-workers who share this great work our Lord has entrusted to our care. Our Conference Board, department heads and office staff commendably labor together that the fruit of our combined abilities and opportunities may redound to the Glory of God. Without all of you my work would be fruitless.

The following list indicates some of my activity for 1990: 175 sermons preached, 1249 pastoral visits (office, hospitals and homes), 37,718 ministerial miles driven; hundreds of telephone calls and letters have involved my time. I have presided over the meetings of the Conference Christian Education and Evangelism Boards as well as the Missions Committee Meetings and the annual planning meeting of all Conference Boards. I had oversight of the Christian Workers Institute, the Falcon Campmeeting, the Piney Grove Campmeeting, the Conference Bible Institute as well as participating in or attending the Ministers and Spouses Retreat, the Gems Retreat, the Women Ministries Retreat, Christian Education Department Talent Meetings, Evangelism and Missions Meetings, Holmes College of the Bible activities, and the Emmanuel College Board of Education and other meetings on that campus.

Eight District Conferences and four Bi-District Conferences continue to be a great time of celebration and promotional training for our people. I commend our laity and clergy for faithful attendance at these functions.

I have represented the Conference at GBA Meetings. I continue to serve at this time on the Planning and Budgetary Committee of this Denomination.

I thank you for giving to me a capable and dedicated Conference Board who have the interest of all our local churches and ministers at heart. I esteem these brethren highly. The work of Women Ministries President Mary Belle Johnson, Conference Christian Education Director, Brother Bobby Forehand and Evangelism/Missions Director, Brother D. Chris Thompson speak distinctly and effectively. These people are Holy Spirit anointed Leaders.

I praise the Lord for our gains. However, this is no time to lessen our efforts or relax our attention to the unfinished task that looms before us.

May I take a moment to thank each church and minister for your faithful financial support of the General Church and this Conference. The need is great. Our increased outreach vision will be able to come to fruition as we labor together and support the great church the Lord has given us to enjoy. In addition to other needs, several of our campus buildings are in serious disrepair, especially the cafeteria and rest room area, the large beige dormitory and the campmeeting auditorium in which we meet today. We urgently need the continued support of the faithful and the increased support of those who are improving in their support. The Lord is rewarding your labor of love. He is helping us, through you, to meet the need. I thank you!

The greatest need I observe among us is the urgency of the hour. It is late. Revitalization of existing churches and the birth of new churches through an aggressive revivalistic and evangelistic thrust under Holy Ghost anointed preachers and lay members will enable us to reach our Target 2,000 goals and more for the Glory of God.

Our direction is upward, our step is forward as we build upon the illustrious platform based on the Word of God the Lord has given us through our Conference and Denominational fathers of the past. Our heritage is grand. We must enhance it and pass it on to our children in the faith until Jesus Christ, our Lord, raptures His Bride.

APPRECIATION COMMITTEE REPORT

How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach except they be sent? These probing questions remind us of the significance of the preachers of our Conference. Therefore we, your Committee on Appreciation, would like to recommend that we give particular honor today to three of our fellow laborers at a special time in their ministry.

We have long recognized various callings and appointments and these men are now entering a different appointment. Although all of them have not been pastoring churches right up to this year, each of them has been a pastor in the past and has been faithful in his calling. We would love to be able to report on just how many people these three men have won to Jesus Christ, but there is no way for any of us to count them all because only God knows about some that have been saved because of them. We would like to note also that their faithful wives have had a tremendous impact on their ministry and they share in all of our appreciation. The final count is not yet in because they are going to continue preaching this glorious Gospel.

These men are not about to stop their ministering for the Lord. They are, however, entering a new stage and will be very happy to be invited to fill the pulpits that are opened to them. Let us not just show them our appreciation for their years of service today, but let's continue to show it by calling upon them and letting God bless us through their unique gifts and calling.

May God's blessings rest upon them is our prayer. In addition to this report we would ask that this Conference body express our appreciation by giving them and their faithful companions a standing round of applause.

Respectfully Submitted,

MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT
JUNE 13, 1991

This past year will be remembered in history as a time when heroes were made and heroes were honored. Global conflict was the setting out of which many heroes of warfare were recognized. The Persian Gulf conflict was not the only battle raging this year. A spiritual conflict was being fought as well and today we pause to salute five soldiers of the cross who fought bravely, died heroically and are now being honored by the Commander in Chief for their faithful service.

REV. T. ALVAH WATSON

Reverend Thomas Alvah Watson was born to Josiah and Monte Wells Watson on December 14, 1915 in Johnston County, NC. He was schooled at Rock Ridge High School and was a graduate of Theology from American Bible School. He wed Sallie Ann Summerlin on January 5, 1935 and to this union were born four children: Faye, Ann, Jackie and Phil. He is also survived by a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Brother Watson was converted in 1937 at the Kenly P.H. Church during a weekend revival. He answered the beckoning of the Holy Spirit to preach the glorious Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ in 1943. He received Local Minister's License in 1951 and was ordained in 1953 under the hands of Bishop J.A. Synan. Superintendent T.E. Long said of him: "Alvah Watson was a Christian gentleman, gracious husband, caring father and grandfather, avid Bible student, accomplished teacher and preacher of the Word of God, loving and tender shepherd of the flock of the Lord because he was first and foremost a man of God who loved Jesus Christ with all his being." Brother Watson began his pastoral duties in 1949 and served as pastor of the following parishes: Black Creek, Bailey, Vaughans Chapel, Robersonville, Rehoboth, Thunder Swamp, Holly Hill and Niagara.

This was a strong, courageously powerful man. Sickness and injury could not daunt the courage of this servant of the Lord. He has fought and won his last battle. His faith in Christ made him death-proof. His body decayed but he lives on and will forevermore.

REV. WILLIAM TROY REECE

Rev. W. T. Reece was born May 15, 1907 into the home of Jackson G. and Maggie Ellen Reece of Glendale, SC.

He married Miss Pearl Westbrook and God blessed this couple with two sons, Talmadge and Bob, both of whom became ministers in the Pentecostal Holiness Church. On June 16, 1929 Bro. Reece yielded to a call from God with which he had been struggling since he was 12 years of age. he immediately joined the Glenndale P.H. Church and began preaching in churches, cottage prayer meetings and tents. He was licensed in the Upper South Carolina Conference in July of 1935 and ordained in 1937. He went on to pastor Landrum, Tryon, Pacolet, Barton Memorial, Newberry, Orville, Williamston, Langley, Wellington, River Heights and Batesburg. He organized three churches and assisted in organizing two others. Of the many people saved under his ministry, 19 received the call to preach and became ministers of the gospel.

After 39 years by his side, his wife, Mrs. Pearl, received her entrance into the Presence of the Lord on May 15, 1967. Her faithfulness to both her Lord and her husband was an example to all.

On March 21, 1969 Bro. Reece married Mrs. Bessie Hale. His family became hers and her family became his. For 22 years they shared their lives with each other. Brother Reece was an intelligent, industrious, humble, honest soldier of Jesus Christ. His reward will indeed be great. We honor his memory today.

REV. EARL GRAYSON MARSHBURN

Rev. Marshburn was born on March 11, 1924. On May 14, 1942 he married Miss Myrtle Fisher of Verona, North Carolina. Two sons were born to that couple: Thomas Earl who now resides in Greenville, N.C., and Steven Ray, Who presently resides in Jacksonville, N.C. The Marshburns have three grandchildren: Angelo, Steven Jr., and Stacy.

Brother Marshburn received Missions Workers License in 1972. He served as supply Pastor of the Verona Church in 1974, was licensed in 1975 and assigned to pastor the Verona church. He remained the Pastor of the Verona church until June of 1989.

Bro Marshburn was bi-vocational during these years. He retired from Marine Chevrolet and Cadillac Company after 30 years of employment; Much of that time he was the Warranty Clerk and Manager of the Truck Division.

A long time friend, Rev. T.B. Henry, in commenting on him at his funeral service said of him: "humble as to his abilities, he was always thorough and dependable. Faithfulness was a great trait in his life." And now he is in the Presence of a Captain who gives high marks for faithfulness.

We salute Brother Marshburn for his faithfulness to the call from God over these years.

REV. MRS. MAE THOMAS

Mrs. Hattie Mae Belle Thomas was born May 22, 1911 in Johnston County, North Carolina. Her parents were J.A. and Pearcy Ann Davis Jordon. Sister Mae was wed to Rev. John Moses Thomas in 1928. The Lord gave them a son, Johnny. She is survived by four grandchildren, five great grandchildren, and one great, great grandchild in addition to Johnny.

Mrs. Thomas was converted to Christ in a cottage prayer meeting in Clayton, North Carolina on July 17, 1937. She was licensed to preach by the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church in 1948. Sister Mae assisted her husband in pastorates in Selma, Roper, Pinetown, Moores Chapel, Wallace, Penderlea, Jacksonville, Bizzell Grove, Pikes Crossroads, Vanceboro, Thomas Chapel, Scotland Neck and Kenly. She officially retired in 1983 but had continued to serve faithfully among the congregation at Kenly.

This quiet, gentle, caring lady enjoyed life. She was regularly seen at Conference functions on the district and conference levels. Due to injuries received in an automobile accident, Mrs. Thomas passed away on Wednesday, April 10, 1991. This lady was precious to us and her memory will be ours forever. I believe she awaits our arrival in Heaven.

RAY M. BRAXTON

On June 13, 1990 Ray M. Braxton received his command to "come up hither." Having served in the United States Army for 20 years, he was well trained in obeying the commands of a superior officer. When the Great Commander of all Christians ordered him to move up, there was no struggle to disobey this command but a submitting to it. Thus, the greatest promotion he had ever received was given him at this time.

Born October 11, 1914 to Maggie and Lorenzo Braxton, he began the journey of life. There were many important things that happened. On July 15, 1945 he was married to Virginia Waters. To this union God gave three wonderful children; Ray Moore Braxton, Jr., Anthony Bryant Braxton, and Nora Braxton Lyons.

The most important experience of his life happened in 1949. While stationed in Hawaii with the U.S. Army, he received the Lord Jesus as his personal Saviour and joined the Lord's army at this time. Part of his service in God's army was to help start a church in Fairbanks, Alaska while stationed there.

In 1961 he retired from the U.S. Army and then worked for the Federal Protection Agency, an agency for the General Service Administration.

On July 15, 1972 he received his Local Ministers License in the Pennsylvania Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church. He transferred to the North Carolina Conference in 1979 and retired in 1983.

After serving 44 months in combat during WW II and the Korean War, and while serving about 50 years in combat for his Lord, the stage was set for his final promotion. He could say with the Apostle Paul,

"I have fought a good fight,
I have finished my course,

> I have kept the faith:
> Henceforth there is laid up for me a > crown of righteousness, which the Lord > the righteous judge shall give me at > that day: and not to me only, but unto > all them also that love his appearing"
> (II Tim. 4:7-8).

PLEASE stand for a few moments of reflection as we remember these true servants of the Lord, after which I request our Presiding Officer to pray.

Respectfully,

Jimmy Whitfield

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
MINUTES OF 1991 CONVENTION

The North Carolina Women's Ministries met for the annual convention on Saturday, June 8, 1991, at the Culbreth Memorial Tabernacle at Falcon, NC. This was the forty-seventh annual convention.

The convention theme was EQUIPPING THE FIELD...FOR THE HARVEST. Registration began at 8:30 a.m. with the NCWM District Directors in charge. Musical prelude began at 9:15 with Mrs. Deanie Jackson as organist and Mrs. Jolene Maxwell as pianist.

At 9:30 a.m., NC Conference Superintendent T. E. Long called the convention to order, gave greetings and the invocation. Mary Belle Johnson followed with a response. Mrs Juanita Russell led the congregation in singing "To God Be The Glory." Board Member Regenia Whitfield received prayer requests and led in prayer.

President Mary Belle Johnson gave the "State of the North Carolina Women's Ministries" report. She expressed her appreciation for the support of all the local WM groups who have made the NCWM successful in efforts to support the overall Women's Ministries program. She presented gifts of appreciation to GEMS officers, CWF Director Mrs. Sylvia Long, NCWM Historian Gail Blalock, and District Directors. She also presented awards to local WM groups as they are listed in the "State of North Carolina Women's Ministries" Booklet.

The Memoirs Committee Report was given by District Director Teresa Bradshaw. The names of those who have gone to their heavenly reward were read and a prayer of thanksgiving for their lives was offer in their memory.

Special music was provided by Deanie Jackson, Jean Clark, Juanita Russell, Joyce Hayes, Phyllis Herring, and Melree Tart. An inspiring devotion was given by Board Member Sue Parker who is a retired missionary.

A missions update was given by Rev. Raymond Potter who is a field representative for the Pentecostal Holiness Church International World Missions Department. He encouraged the women to participate in the Mug-A-Month program as a means of supporting the world missions program.

Mrs Westa Barefoot, NCWM Vice-President, gave an update on the missions commissary in Falcon and the overall missions program as related to the North Carolina Women's Ministries. She also spoke to the need of supporting the Blanche L. King Scholarship program, which is a fund to go toward scholarships for children of missionaries. In keeping with the missions theme, the Holly Hill Women's Ministries (under the direction of District Director Joy Bowers and NCWM Secretary-Treasurer Linda M. Thomas) presented a skit entitled "A Ladies Meeting".

Sharon Wooten, daughter of Rev. & Mrs. Phillip List who are missionaries, gave a very interesting presentation on what it is like to grow up as a child on the mission field. She also sang.

A special offering was received for the Blanche L. King Scholarship Fund. Several persons dressed in native dress from around the world stood on the platform while representatives from all local Women's Ministries groups brought their offerings and placed them in a large basket. (Note: As of July 31, 1991, $1,867.12 had been received for this fund.)

Following a special song by the ensemble, President Mary Belle Johnson closed the convention by leading the congregation in the W.M. Benediction.

The floral design for the convention was given by Evangelistic Temple in loving memory of Mrs. Mona Duncan who before her recent passing had served so faithfully in her local Women's Ministries group for many years. Mona was known throughout the North Carolina Conference and loved by so many. We Praise God for her life.

MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT FOR CONVENTION

It is certain that as sure as there is life, there will be death. But to the Christian, death is only a valley for the soul to receive eternal life. It is for certain that as sure as there is life, there will be death. We all will find it our lot in life unless the Lord comes for us.

As a flower blossoms in life, stands strong in the storms of life, stands tall before the sun, there comes a fading away, some young and some old. This past year our Women's Ministries have had some beautiful flowers who have departed from this life and have entered into the arms of Jesus. Although our hearts are saddened with our loss, we praise the Lord for their victorious trip into Heaven. We, too, will receive this reward as we serve God and join our friends there.

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints." Psalms 116:15.
